

Carnaval San Francisco cultivates and celebrates the diverse Latin American, Caribbean and African Diasporic roots of the Mission District and the San Francisco Bay Area. We accomplish our mission through music, dance, the visual arts and through creating spaces for community learning, school-based education, and advocacy.

Becoming a Founding Donor!

We invite you to become a Founding Donor and help sustain one of San Francisco's most vibrant and artistically diverse cultural celebrations. With a legacy spanning decades, Carnaval San Francisco continues to bring people together through arts, culture, and community. Your support ensures that this free, multicultural celebration thrives, directly funding programs that enrich the lives of children, youth, and the broader community.

Through our Donor Base Program, we raise critical funds to support our ongoing programs and the production of Carnaval San Francisco, making a lasting impact year after year. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, your contribution is tax-deductible and helps keep this beloved community event alive.

Your contribution supports the following programs

- * Carnaval Cultural Arts Education Program in public schools
 - * Health and Wellness education outreach
- * Parade costumes and musical instruments for children and youth
 - * Volunteer appreciation and support
 - * Production of the Carnaval Parade and Festival
